C. E. WHITE OF ANDOVER

Made Defendant in $10,000 Suit Brought by New York Bank for Un-

An attachment for $10,000 was recorded at the office of the town clerk against C. E. White of Andover. on Thursday afternoon, to appear before the Tolland county superior court the first Tuesday in June, to answer to the Nassau National bank of New York concerning a promissory note of the Cumberland Lumber company, dated December 10, 1910, to Clinton T. Roe for $10,000, which has the endorsement of said Roe et al. transforted to the plaintiff on April 25, 1911, presented to the bank not paid. Notice has been given the defendant. It is maintained that the plaintiff owns said note and that it has not been paid, except $2,500 on account of principal. Damiages of $10,000 are claimed. Service has been made on the Connecticut River Banking company in Hartford. William Welso Hyde is recognized in the sum of $50 to proceed. Resperty at the corner of Carey and Estelvina streets in this city has been attached by Deputy Sheriff John W. Watkins of Andover, and property in Andover has also been attached. On April 22 of the present year, practically the same property was attached for a note of $3,000 to cover the costs of a suit instituted against Mr. White.

John J. Smith.

John J. Smith, aged 37, died Wednesday evening at 10.30 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. Walter E. Thompson, 74 Park street, following six days' illness with pneumonia. Mr. Smith was taken ill the latter part of last week while at work in Paimer, Mass., and came to the home of his sister here for treatment. He developed pneumonia quickly and rapidly grew worse until his death.

Mr. Smith was born in Willimantic, where he had lived practically all his life until he went to Palmer to work, a few months ago. He possessed an exceptionally genial disposition and was ever obliging when working at the station in the baggage room and previously for the American Express company. At the time of his death he was in the car department for the Central Vermont railroad at Palmer. Mass. There survive his widow, his mother. Mrs. Mary Smith, and one sister, Mrs. Walter E. Thompson.

Mrs. Mary Ratcliff.

Shewas formerly a resident of Willimantic. The only surviving relative is her mother. Mrs. Ellen Shea, residing in this city. The body was brought to this city on the evening express on Thursday and was taken to the rooms of Funeral Director Killourey to await the completion of the funeral arrangements.

DANIELSON

sary of the outbreak of the civil war, it is interesting to note what was going on in Danielson fifty years ago. During the war times the Norwich Morning Bulletin, which was started in July, 1858, was the principal daily paper received here and had a wide circulation in the borough.

Mass Meetings Held.

After the taking of Fort Sumter war meetings and public addresses were held. On April 22 a mass meeting was held at Brooklyn in the open, near the south side of the pld Malbone church. Daniel P. Tyler was the principal speaker; Gov. Swilliam A. Buckingham of Norwich was present and made a short address.

Town war meetings were held on April 27 and May 2 at Union hall, for the purpose of making some provision for raising and equipping troops. A small company was raised and equipped and were quartered in this hall. They were provided with grey uniforms made by the ladies of the borough. After drilling and lounging around for a while, they disbanded, the services of all of them not being required to fill the quots. These left behind re-enlisted and joined other regiments.

The twere not many casualties in the regiment, but it lost heavily in prisoners and the two weeks following the battle was a time of anxiety and suspense to many a home here.

Tidings from the Front.

On Saturday June 20. Edward L. Cundall, Major Keach and Loren Bates left here for the purpose of finding out all they could in relation to the members of the Eighteenth. What they could find out was reported to the waiting friends and relatives here, and thus many anxious doubts were dispeled.

In July a number of the paroled men were some and took part in a funeral pageant accorded Corp. Milton A. Young. He was a son of Jepemiah Young and losing an arm at Gettysburg he came home and died from hlood poisoning at his father's home. At this time Capt. Thomas K.
